Iconic Wines

A selection of wines from some of the finest wine producing estates on the planet. All are drinking beautifully now and offer a glimpse of wine making genius. We have added only a small cash margin to these vinous beauties (and beasts) in order to make them truly accessible.

White

	750ml
100. Sauvignon Blanc 2012, Cakebread Cellars, USA Round and fleshy for its type, this wine shows notes of citrus, stone fruit and gooseberries.	£45.00
101. Puligny-Montrachet 2012, Domaine Francois Carillon, France A very attractive blend of citrus, white flowers, crushed shell minerals and warm pastry on the nose. The palate, similarly, balances purity and focus with underlying richness.	£55.00
102. Guardiola 2012, Tenuta di Passopisciaro, Italy 100% Chardonnay that sees no new oak. This is a gem, with an extraordinarily aromatic nose, a medley of lemon sherbet, orchard fruit and candied pineapple.	£60.00
103. HdV Chardonnay 2009, Hyde de Villaine, USA A rich, lustrous gold, with a nose that reveals opulent, rather hedonistic warm pastry notes, refreshed by a sabre of citrus. The palate is rounded and rich, with hints of plump macadamia nuts, vanilla and orchard fruit.	£80.00
104. Meursault 1er Cru 2011, Domaine Leflaive, France Golden in colour, the nose offers delectably buttery, peachy white fruits. The palate is brightly fat and seductive, a real pleasure giver but with enough acidity to lift the lushness to a fine finish.	£100.00

Red

	750ml
105. Kinien Malbec 2009, Bodega Ruca Malen, Argentina A unique and brooding wine made only in exceptional vintages, grown at high altitudes that concentrate flavour and aroma in the grapes, Kinien is a complex and intense wine with exceptional freshness and plenty of dark, spicy fruit.	£45.00
106. Hare's Breath Pinot Noir 2010, Muddy Water, New Zealand A haunting, heady aroma of wild strawberries and crushed rose petals herald Muddy Water's muscular Pinot Noir. From a single vineyard, Hare's Breath unites the old and new world.	£55.00
107. Il Pino di Biserno 2009, Tenuta di Biserno, Italy This is a wonderfully accessible, inviting wine from the enlightened, pioneering Marchese Lodovico Antinori's new estate in Tuscany. Deep plum velvet, with warm, pepper-spiced dark fruit on the nose. Fresh, perfumed, elegant and attractively focused.	£60.00
108. Carmen Gran Reserva 2007, Benjamin Romeo, Spain Sumptuous. The nose is appetising, a creamy blend of red and black fruit, violet, wild herbs and hints of mint. The wine has spent 32 months in Taransaud barrels. The palate is in a very refined traditional style, noble in its breeding and texture, beautifully balanced and fresh	£100.00
